Hello everyone! Welcome to Operation: Let's Play. I hope you are ready to laugh and play with us this week as we head Down on the Farm to have a look around with a game of, I Spy. Today we will walk through how you can set up your own I Spy or play with everything is in your room already. I hope you’re ready for this. Let’s Play!

Here is the picture of the place in which we played I Spy from the video

Within the video I asked if you could find these items:

- A hula hoop
- A pair of clown shoes
- Something that’s red and white and really long
- Something with the letters S, T, O, P on it
- Five little gray hippos
- Something you might use on a rainy day
- Two stars
- Something that can play music
- Three turtles
- A golden statue
- A jump rope

You can also play this by sitting around a room or looking out a window with a friend. You can say something that you spy and see if they can find it.

To make this even harder try using only a descriptor of what you see rather than saying what the object is.

Let’s Play TOGETHER!
